A copy of the Bangalore Partnership (Registration of Firms) Rules, 1934, is kept below. The Rules were based on the Coorg Partnership (Registration of Firms) Rules, 1932 -- (Please see para 17 of notes of F.371-34). There seems to be no objection to our adapting the standardised forms in place of the existing forms under the Station Rules for the following two reasons:-

B.

(1) this will bring the Station Rules into line with the British Indian Rules; and

(2) this will obviate the necessity of printing the forms separately for use in the Station. In view of the limited number of forms required annually , there seems to be no justification to our printing them separately in the Residency Press when we can obtain similar forms from the Government of India Press.

With reference to the decision of the Government of India that no price should be fixed for the forms it may be mentioned that at present no price is charged for the forms in the Station--vide S.N.16/c.p.37 of F. 371-34.
